Cleveland, March 29.—Physicians reported Mrs. Mary Maiston, Indianapolis, one of the passengers who escaped unharmed in Amherst wreck, gave birth to a child in one of the day coaches immediately after the wreck.

tieth Century Limited, that crashed together in a thick fog one mile west of Amherst, O., today.

The first section of No. 86, east-bound, had just slowed up, ready to stop, when a block signal was thrown against it, one mile west of Amherst. The second section of No. 86, bound from Detroit to Pittsburgh, crashed into the rear of the first section less than 2 minutes later. A brakeman had been sent back with a lantern and fuses to warn the second section. Passengers stated it was so
